Foreword

We, the staff of the 1944 WESTERNER, have endeavored to portray for you many of the achievements and activities of the 1943-'44 school year. It is impossible, of course, to include every event of the year, but we do sincerely hope that a few experiences that you hold dear to you have been included. With the desire that each page will suggest some pleasant memory, we present to you the 1944 WESTERNER.

Here's your 1944
yearbook with a
WESTERN flavor

The fortunes of a school such as ours are not determined by any one man; and yet surely something of the distinctive, unassuming, and inspiring character of "Pop" Groves has been brought into the spirit and soul of Lubbock High School—something that will sustain it and color its traditions down through the years long after his active labors have ceased. To him, Mr. R. T. Groves, the 1944 WESTERNER is reverently dedicated.

Captain W. B. Irvin
Superintendent

During the past seven years, Captain William Buel Irvin, now serving in the armed forces of our country, has been superintendent of the Lubbock Public Schools.

Before coming to Lubbock, he was superintendent of the Pampa Schools and Perryton Schools. During summer vacations, he has taught in four Texas colleges and universities and at the University of Denver in Denver, Colorado.

Captain Irvin has served as president of the Texas State Teachers' Association, and is among the Leaders of American Education.

After receiving his Bachelor's degree and Master's degree from Hardin-Simmons University, Captain Irvin received his Doctor's degree in 1939 from the University of Texas.

Always busy but never too busy to spend a while with his students is Mr. Raymond W. Matthews, acting superintendent of the Lubbock Public Schools. Having served in the Lubbock school system for twenty-one years, Mr. Matthews has won the respect and admiration of many.

Before entering the career of a teacher, he received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Southern Methodist University, and his Master of Arts degree from Texas Technological College. He also attended Texas Christian University.

Mr. R. W. Matthews
Acting Superintendent

Mr. Floyd Honey
Assistant Principal

Mr. Floyd Honey, assistant principal of Lubbock High School, is appreciated by all students because of his ability to make friends and remember new faces. A friend to every boy and girl and a willing helper where help is needed, Mr. Honey is truly an inspiration to high school students. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree and a Master of Arts degree, which he received from Texas Technological College.

The Student Council of Lubbock High School

About ten years ago a group of teachers began investigations on a student representative body; and after much research, the Student Council of Lubbock High School was organized. It acts in an advisory capacity, voicing the ideas of the student body. The Student Council initiates many splendid movements. Among them this year was the sale of tuberculosis bangles. The council went over the top with $108.76. Other activities of the council are: sponsoring pep rallies, sponsoring the all-school dance, decorating the halls for Christmas, and sponsoring the war bond sales.

Members of the Student Council are:

How the Favorites were Chosen

Loyalty, faithfulness, general citizenship, cooperation, personality, honesty, service, and general value to the school were the qualifications considered by the teachers when they made their choice for the All-Westerners. Their final selection of one senior boy and one senior girl exemplifies the best of Lubbock High School's population.

Class favorites were chosen through secret ballot by the respective classes. Seniors nominated one boy and one girl whom they considered their best-liked friends. The Juniors and Sophomores each chose one student, either a boy or a girl, from their own classes. A list of nominees was made; and, if a student received a majority of votes, he was pronounced elected; if not, a run-off was held.

By popular vote of the faculty the Who's Who section was chosen. These students are outstanding in school activities and have many of the qualifications of the All-Westerners. Who's Who faculty members were chosen by the Westerner staff.

Favorites

We're friends together

Tall, handsome, intelligent Jack is all one could ask for as the All-Westerner boy. Jack has proved his leadership and dependability as president of the Student Body and Hi-Y and as an active member of the National Honor Society. Jack likes girls, radio mystery stories, and eating.

Jackie Lewis has been chosen All-Westerner girl this year. Her numerous activities include her position as editor of the WESTERNER and secretary of the Study Body. Her popularity was aptly proved when the Westerner basketball team elected her their sweetheart. She is a true Westerner.

Jim Joe Rieger, a tall brunette, is the idol of every Westerner gridiron fan. He is now serving his country in the United States Army Air Forces, and is displaying the sportsmanship and sense of fair play that he showed as number "20" on the Westerner team and which makes him so deserving of the title "Senior Favorite."

Wards of luck to a sweet guy!
Good luck
Jackie

Dark-haired, brown-eyed, energetic Jackie Lewis has been chosen for the highest honor that is in the power of the seniors to give her—that of senior favorite. She always has plenty of time to speak to everyone, and she wins more new friends every day.

Jane Lawson, the junior choice for their favorite, is a small blonde girl with plenty of what it takes. Having served two years as a member of the Student Council and as a cheer leader, Jane has won many friends and admirers.

Pretty Charlotte Scoggin, sophomore favorite, is one of the most popular girls in Lubbock Senior High School. Her popularity was evidenced by her being elected Westerner football sweetheart for 1944. Charlotte has more than found her place in the hearts of L. H. S. students.

All who know Johnny Davis admire him for his leadership, sportsmanship, and dependability. Always smiling with a cheerful "hello" for everyone, Johnny has established himself as tops on the Westerner scoreboard.

Never too busy for a cheerful "hello," Louise Battin is everyone's pal. Active in the Girl Reserves and Gens Togata, she is also secretary of the National Honor Society for 1943-44. Exemplifying the characteristics of a real Westerner, she is also a portrait of the American girl.

Teachers as well as students admire Sam Henly for his excellent grades and his ability to "get things done." Possessing the characteristics of a leader, Sam will go far in life. His winning smile has won him long lasting friendships.

Who's Who

"Jimmy" Allen is the personification of all that a sophomore could be. Laughing brown eyes, flashing smile, and sparkling personality go to make him everyone's friend. With a sincere desire to learn, Jimmy combines his social activities with his studies so as to have a good time in school.

Joyce Yocum is the smiling girl with the artistic talent and the gift of making everyone admire her. As assistant editor of the annual, she has worked long and hard to make a better annual. Liked and respected by all who know her, Joyce is our nomination for one swell girl.

With many admirers among both faculty and students, Joe Arrington is an ardent and enthusiastic student. His love for sports shows in that he has served as manager of the football and basketball teams for the past year. A good chemistry student, Joe has worked long and hard for the betterment of the chemistry club, T. N. T.

Efficient, capable Olive Pearle Matthews has shown her ability to fulfill the trust placed in her by the students and teachers alike. She is vice-president of the National Honor Society, member of the Girl Reserves and a lover of the Great Outdoors.

Intelligent Billy Masters is praised by all for his excellent speeches, both extemporaneous and prepared. Holding the offices of president of Gens Togata, vice-president of the National Forensic League, and parliamentarian of the National Honor Society is only a part of his many activities.

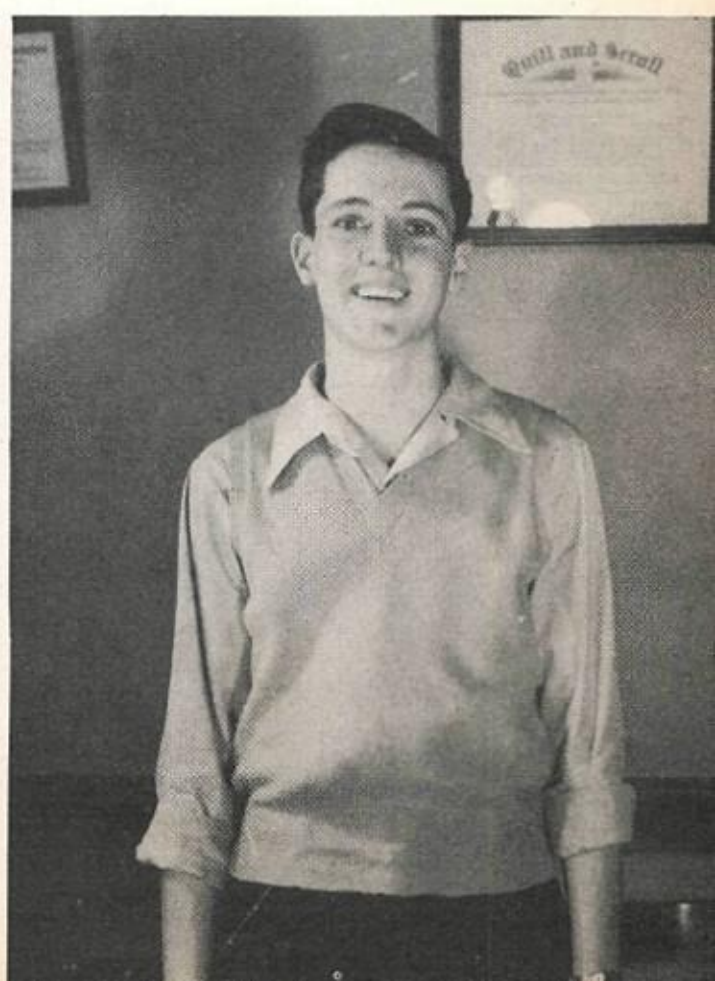

An outstanding student, ranking high in the National Honor Society, secretary of the Thespians, junior editor of the Westerner, valuable member of the Westerner World staff, member of the Quill and Scroll and also a Girl Reserve, Margene Fry is a girl who delights in making friends.

Who's Who

Initiative and intelligence make Elbert O'Neill an outstanding Westerner. His ability as the photographer for this year's Westerner has won for him the admiration of the faculty as well as his fellow students. His quiet manner in doing what must be done will make him a success in any undertaking.

There is an amazing amount of energy in tiny, red-haired Gloria Novak. She must have it, for she is sophomore class editor for the '44 Westerner, active member of the Girl Reserves, vice-president of the Thespians, and a member of the Student Council.

Quiet and reserved, but possessed of the stuff it takes to make class presidents, George Morris is a favorite with both faculty and students. Besides making above average grades, George is an active member of the Hi-Y and plays clarinet in the Westerner band.

Cheerful, attractive June Royalty has proved herself worthy of all praise because of her splendid work as editor of the Western World this year. Always smiling and friendly, June has displayed the personality which has won her the admiration of all who work with her.

"Stony" Wall is a delightful combination of a happy-go-lucky football hero and a serious student. In the winter Stony goes out for football and he looks like a promising star for next year's team. In the spring, Stony goes out for basketball in a big way.

Quiet and unassuming Billy Slagle, admired by his fellow students as well as the members of the faculty for his excellent grades and cooperative spirit. Always dependable, Billy goes about his job respecting the confidence which has been placed in him. He has won many friends.

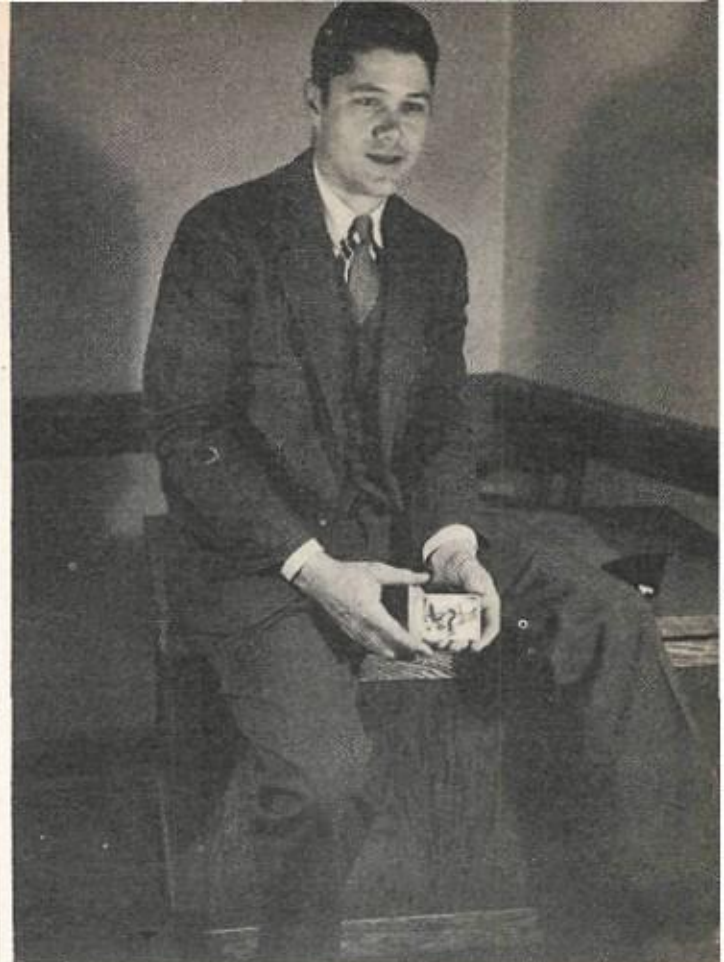

Who's Who

One of the most popular girls of the senior class, Frances Groce is indeed fitted to be recognized and honored for her numerous contributions to the school. Serving now as secretary of the Girl Reserves, Frances shows herself as true, honest, dependable, and always willing to serve in a good cause.

Sparkling, enthusiastic "Wistie" Reid is an attractive brunette with bubbling personality. "Wistie" is our idea of an all-round girl. As an active member of the Girl Reserves and the Westernaire staff, she has shown ability that is admired by everyone.

Three years as a favorite among her co-workers because of her bright ingenuity and attractive personality, Irene Crim will go through life in her own personal manner conquering obstacles and winning still more friends.

We all admire Mr. Ishmael Hill for his ability as a mathematics teacher. His helpful attitude, enthusiastic nature, winning smile, and all the rest of his admirable characteristics have won for him the confidence of every student in Lubbock High School.

Always cheerful and always smiling, Mrs. Rosa Mae Burford is one of Lubbock High's favorite teachers. With that special knack for making friends, she has made herself indispensable as a National Honor Society sponsor and as a regular senior class sponsor.

Lubbock High School is just packed with "swell" teachers. One of these, Mr. Rogers Orr, has proved himself a favorite among students because of his friendly attitude, jovial personality, and his willingness to help all "struggling" young scientists.

Who's Who

*Dear Lee,
You have improved
a lot this year. If you'd stay in high school
ten more years, you'd be a good student.*

Aline McCarty

Miss Linoel Hilliard, co-ordinator of the English department, is a member of the faculty truly worthy of recognition. Always sweet and charming, Miss Hilliard is ever ready to help students with their problems whether they be in the complexities of grammar or otherwise.

What would old Lubbock High School be without helpful, handy, jovial "Uncle Jim" Keetch? Always there when you need him, and always needed, "Keetch" has proved himself the number one fix-it man around the school. He has earned the respect of the teachers and the friendship of the students.

Say Miss Aline McCarty's trigonometry students, "She is patience itself." Because she is such a delightful person to be associated with, many say that her class is the most pleasant of the day. No one who has ever known Miss McCarty will ever forget her or the valuable lessons she has taught.

1. At the Quill and Scroll initiation banquet.
2. Everyone seems interested in the performance.
3. Girl Reserves and their stickers.
4. Santa Claus visits the National Honor Society banquet.
5. An initiation service.

6. Miss Wrenn, Jack, "Birddog," and Francys seem quite interested in the experiment.
7. Margene Fry, a pledge, imitates a teapot.
8. Evidently Tommy Nash had never played "Cheeky-Cheeky."
9. "Doc" Morrisset looks as though he has eaten a little too much.

National Thespian Club

The purpose of the organization is to create a more active and intelligent interest in high school dramatics. Participation in the club activities encourages the students to attain a better mastery of language, to develop poise and self-control, and to appreciate dramatic literature and its techniques.

The Thespians have presented two plays — the Armistice play, "Let Me Come Back," with choric reading, "The Voice of America," and the Christmas play, "The Cornhusk Doll." They have initiation in the fall and a formal banquet in the spring.

Photographer
Elbert O'Neill

Courteous, smiling Elbert O'Neill certainly deserves credit for his invaluable work on the WESTERNER and the WESTERNER WORLD publications. Elbert is always on the job looking for a "new angle" . . . and he seems to have discovered one.

His interest in photography has resulted in his combination of work and play in recording the activities of Lubbock High School students. An active member of the diversified occupations class, Elbert works at a downtown photography studio after school hours.

An important member of the publications staff throughout his high school career, Elbert will be missed after graduation for his friendliness and courtesy, as well as his outstanding participation in school activities.

Francys Peters

A girl whom we shall certainly depend upon next year is Francys Peters. Her interest in photography was discovered last year, and she was asked to help Elbert with the tremendous job with which he was faced.

Francys will have a dual job next year since Elbert is graduating, but we know that when she has it all to do that she can and will.

Personality plus is the phrase that describes Francys. Smiling, joking, she has as many friends as any girl or boy in high school.

Francys comes by her talent naturally, for her father is an expert in the field of photography.

The Band

Pictured at the left is the band in action at the football stadium. Nelson Morris is drum major and Hardie Matthews is twirler.

The first band composed of the students of Lubbock High School was organized in 1924 by Jasper W. Cromley. At the time of its organization it consisted of forty-one members. That number has increased from year to year until the members now number sixty-four. The first public appearance of the Lubbock High School band was at Mineral Wells, Texas, where it played under the sponsorship of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. From this early start has come the well organized band of today which plays such a large part in the activities of Lubbock High.

Orchestra

One of the many sections of Lubbock High School's large orchestra.

The orchestra was organized in 1924 by Miss Beulah Dunn. The second director was H. A. Anderson; the third, Miss Dunn; and the fourth and present director, Mr. Charles Eskridge.

Playing for assembles, victory concerts, and commencement exercises are only a few of the orchestra's varied activities. In the spring the members hold their annual formal dinner and dance, which is their main social of the year.

The weekly newspaper we know as the WESTERNER WORLD began in 1927 as a quarterly magazine named Hub Highlites with Miss Dorothy Lomax as sponsor. This magazine developed quickly into a bi-weekly publication and finally into the weekly newspaper of today. Mrs. Ross Ayers and Mrs. Dick Cozby have been the succeeding sponsors to the paper, and both have led it to many triumphs. The WESTERNER WORLD as a self-supporting publication has the following record: first place in the Texas High School Press Association for the last three years and first class honor ratings in the National Scholastic Press Association and the Quill and Scroll international contests.

Members of the editorial staff are: Editor, June Royalty; news editor, Jack Cooper; sports editors, Tom Lokey, Tommy Nash, first semester—Johnny Cole, Johnny Davis, second semester; copyreader, Marijane Grace; girls' sports editor, Dorothy Harrison; photographer, Elbert O'Neill; special reporters, Leslie Morrisset, Johnny Cole, Pat Naylor, Ernestine Loveless, Marijane Grace, Mary Jo Baber, Dorothy Harrison, and Margene Fry. Typists, Joe David Sides, Evelyn Hodges, Eleanor Ferguson, Joe Rae Watson, and Bob Hassell.

To the left, Jerry Smith as Charles, the butler, and Mary Ann Dykes as Katie, the maid, put the finishing touches on holiday decorations for Miss Camelot.

Below, Doris Mae Burdett as Camela Camelot, the young movie actress.

Christmas Play

"The Cornhusk Doll," a one-act play, was the Thespian Club's contribution to the Christmas season. Members of the cast vividly portrayed the embittered movie star, her household, her agent, and a young reporter. The production was directed by Mrs. Marie Gabriel, speech instructor.

Jerry LeMond as Jakè Roberts, the publicity agent, tells Dan Gates, the young newspaper reporter, played by Milton Butler, of Miss Camelot's struggle for fame.

Senior Play

"Thumbs Up," the new three-act comedy by Sylvester Deford, was presented by the Senior Class of Lubbock High School as one of the outstanding school events of the year. A stirring, well-chosen cast, and an entertaining plot were only a few of the factors that made this an interesting play.

Diversified Occupations

Diversified Occupations is a co-operative part-time course organized in 1943 for students interested in working part-time. Students attend school 4 hours, and work each afternoon from 4 to 6 hours at some trade or industry. Starting enrollment included 3 girls and 25 boys.

Socials held during the year were parties in the gym, weiner roasts, and the annual employer-employee banquet.

Weldon Adams, Bobby Bowers, Wenton Butler, Clifton Casey, Kenneth Connell, Don Davidson, J. W. Davis, Wayne Davis, A. E. Folsone, Pat Fulton, Joe Gaston, Billy Jack Hunt, Robert Karr, Billy Ledwig, L. D. McKinley, Jr., Herschel Martin, Bobby Monroe, Elbert O'Neill, Darrell Perman, Joe Privitt, Lorene Taylor, Frances Turner, Dessie Ussery, Dean Witt. Co-ordinator, Mr. G. E. Dawson.

Distributive Education

The Distributive Education class opened in 1938 with 14 students, nearly all of them boys. Over the period of five years the class has gained thirty members and as an exception the majority are girls. For the first time the class has been divided because of large number and the juniors meet in a two-hour class from 8 to 10 while the seniors meet from 11 to 12:30.

Activities held during the year are the annual Christmas dinner-dance, employer-employee banquet, and various parties in the homes of the students.

Ex-Westerners in Service of Uncle Sam

Some of the bravest, most courageous soldiers of this World War II have been those who in former days roamed the halls of Lubbock High. They left their school, their homes, their friends, and all they knew for a greater cause, the cause of their country.

In the following eight pages are pictured a few of the hundreds of ex-Westerners who are now in the service of Uncle Sam. An annual wouldn't be complete without them because it is they who fill our thoughts and our prayers.

Many of our fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, and classmates may return, but many others, no. Theirs was a supreme sacrifice, the sacrifice of life.

May it be resolved that they, and others like them, should not have died in vain.

Football Sweetheart

The coveted honor of being selected football sweetheart this year was awarded to Charlotte Scoggin. For the first time in the history of the school, this award was given to a sophomore. Charlotte is also active in the sophomore class as a vice-president. She has made numerous friends since her entrance into high school.

Other nominees for football sweetheart were Betty Rountree and Jackie Lewis, seen here with Co-Captains Jim Joe Rieger and Jim Strawn.

Football Coaches

Coach J. Mule Davis's long football career and experience places him among the respected coaches in Texas high school football. He has guided the Westerners through two successful seasons and we look forward to many more. The Westerners have, through their associations with him, come to respect him and regard him as a close friend.

Coach Dixie White helped build the '43 Westerners into a fighting ball club. Returning from the U. S. Army where he learned the value of spirit, he instilled in the boys the will to win. As line coach, he produced one of the best charging lines in the state. A graduate of Lubbock High, "Dixie" has earned the respect of all Westerners as a coach and a teacher.

Joe "Cisco" Arrington has been greatly appreciated by the team. He has spent several hours at the practice field each afternoon, attending the needs of the team.

Business Manager

Mr. "Pinkey" Lowrey has long been one of the most popular members of the faculty and has done a wonderful job serving as business manager of the Westerners.

Football Program Chairman

Although Mr. G. E. Dawson's work has been practically unacknowledged, he has been planning programs for Westerner football games since 1935. He manages and arranges the material for these programs and also solicits ads. All Westerners owe Mr. Dawson a vote of thanks for the fine work he has done.

Leslie "Doc" Morrisset has also been very helpful in keeping the players patched up and ready to play.

Tommy Nash, No. 67

Guard

Tommy was a fine player and a strong point in our line this year.

Harold Burdett, No. 75

Tackle

Harold added strength at center and was a capable reserve.

Co-captain Jim Joe Rieger, No. 20

End

Jim Joe was one of the ablest leaders on the gridiron in the history of L.H.S. He inspired the team to do its best and proved to be a real player's player as shown by his all-district choice.

Eldon Giles, No. 76

Tackle

Eldon made a fine showing despite inexperience and will be counted on next year.

Roland Laxon, No. 13

End

Laxon made a place on the team for himself by his spirit in his first year of football.

David Coursey

Center

Coursey spent many hours in practice. Although ineligible this year, much will be expected of him next year.

Carlton (Gentleman) Land, No. 74

Tackle

Carlton showed the kind of hustle and fight which has always characterized Westerner teams.

O.C. "Superman" Foster, No. 68

Guard

Foster was one of the best reserves this year. Next year will find him playing a lot of football for L.H.S.

Clinton Benefield, No. 60

Guard

"Benny's" spirit gained him the respect of the team and the student body.

Kenneth Cawthorn, No. 87

End

He saw quite a bit of action this season and much more will be expected of him next year.

Beuron Lindsey, No. 12

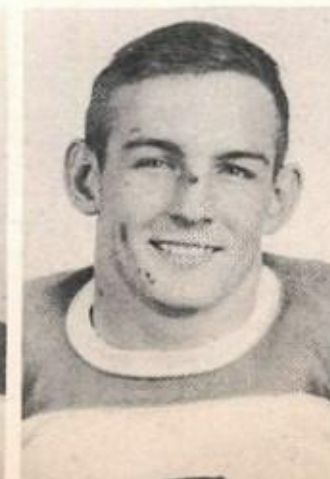

Back

Booty's speed and passing ability made him a scoring threat.

Clifton "Wolf" Riek, No. 14

Back

Riek added strength to the backfield as a reserve this year.

Billy Bob Harris, No. 44

Back

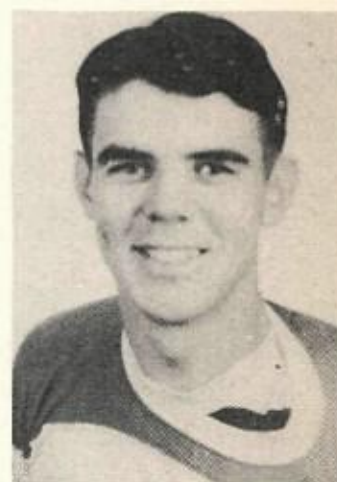

As reserve back he stepped in any time to do a great job at the assigned task.

Roy Grimes, No. 45

Back

Regardless of the injury he received at the beginning of the year, Grimes showed that fine Westerner "do or die" spirit when he came back.

N. W. Elston, No. 10

Back

The workhorse of the team was always plowing his way through the opponents' line for long gains.

N. W. Elston

Gene Gray, No. 85

End

Old "nigger," as he was called, kept battling all the way, whenever he was called.

"Pinky"

Jim Lowrey, No. 32

Back

A little guy who was always in there pitching and gained respect from his teammates with his fighting spirit.

Johnny Davis, No. 22

Back

He played good football during the '43 season and is expected to turn in even better playing next year.

Tom Lokey, No. 66

Guard

Lokey turned in as fine a piece of playing last season as anyone on the team.

Jerry Crawford, No. 88

End

Crawford built up the reserve strength of L.H.S. and came through with success when called upon.

Jim Strawn, No. 72

Tackle

Co-captain, Jim was one of the outstanding players on the Westerner team this year and was a major factor in the victories the team accomplished. An able offensive man, he did his best while on the defense.

R. W. Moyer, No. 56

Center

Moyer sparked the '43 Westerners on to many victories this year and will see plenty of action next year.

Ed Hensley, No. 99

End

He made a fine reserve at an end position last fall.

Raymond Yandell, No. 73

Tackle

As another reserve, Yandell helped in many difficult spots.

Charles Pressley, No. 51

Center

Pressley was a great defensive man and always started the plays rolling with fine snaps.

Marion Manderson, No. 65

Tackle

Manderson was ineligible for the first part of the season, but was able to help the Westerners in the latter part.

Homer Lawson, No. 77

Tackle

Homer was always in there battering the opponents' lines and showed up on the offense also.

Johnny Pearson, No. 52

Guard

Pearson was in on the opponents' backfield plays as he set back the oppositions.

Pat Thurman, No. 35

Back

Thurman, even though a little guy, was always ready and willing when the time came.

Yantis Wright, No. 46

Back

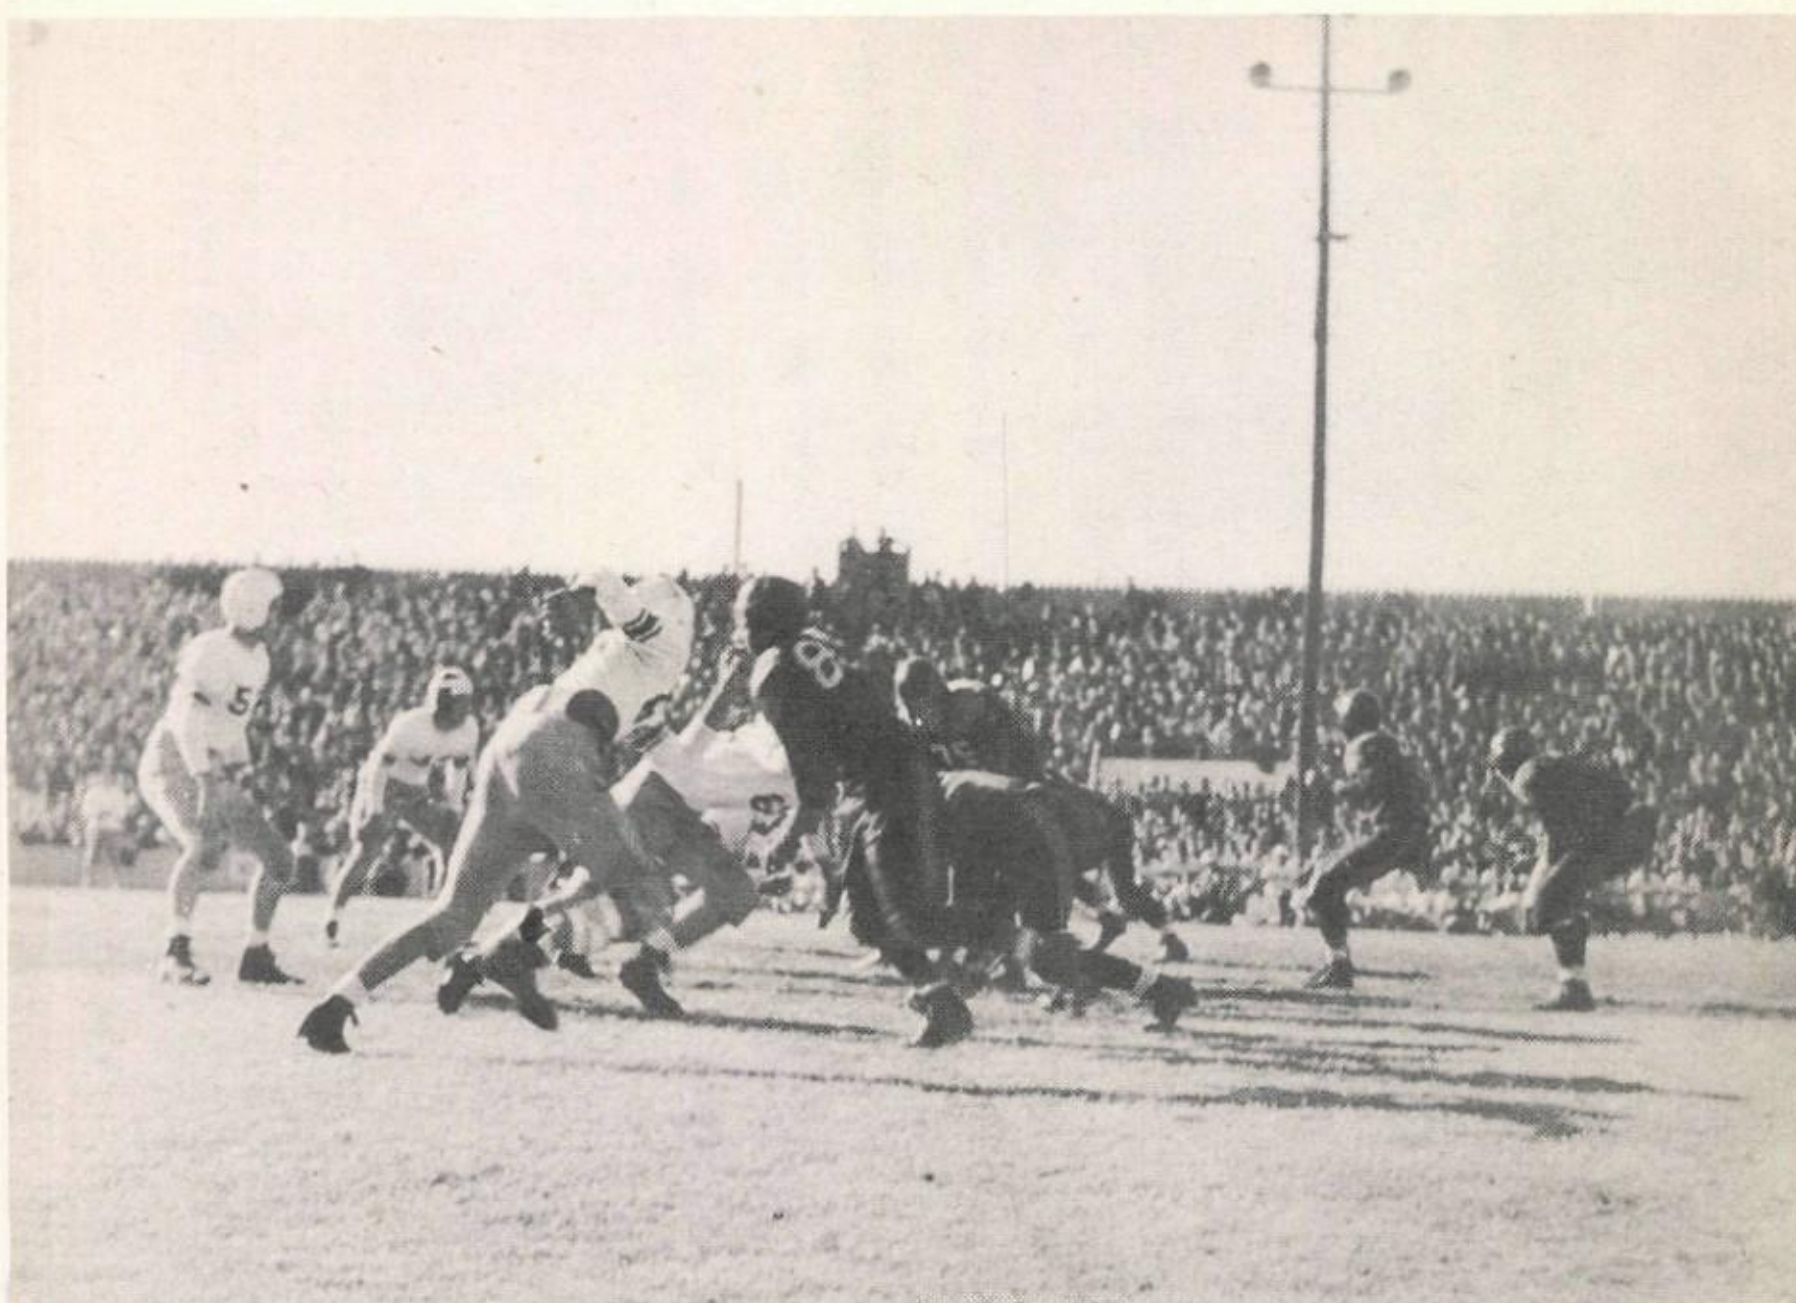

Another rough fullback, Wright showed fine ability when needed.

Johnny Cole, No. 29

Back

Cole was a snappy little quarterback, who helped build the Westerners' reserves.

Grimes trying an end sweep against Amarillo.

Season's Review

Opening the season against a highly touted Odessa eleven, the Westerners rolled up an impressive 18-6 victory. Next the Bronc Busters journeyed to San Angelo, only to run up against the soon-to-be state champions, the powerful Bobcats, and met defeat, 40-0. Regaining their composure, the Westerners downed the Big Spring Steers in a close and hard-fought game, 7-2. The Lamesa Golden Tornadoes offered little opposition as they bowed under the scoring might of the lads from Lubbock High, 52-0. In the season's thriller in which both teams showed much power and speed, the whistle ended the game with the scoreboard reading Lubbock 19, Temple 13.

Pampa was the first district opponent and was the victim of a 12-0 score in a game closer than the score indicated. To avenge a last year's defeat by Brownfield, the Westerners stormed over the Cubs 19-0. Renewing the bitter rivalry between Lubbock and Amarillo, the Westerners were overcome by the highly versatile attack of the Sandies to the tune of 47-0. Closing the season against Plainview, the L.H.S. men suffered a mental letdown and went down to a stinging 26-0 defeat. Summarizing the season, the Westerners achieved 6 wins against 3 losses in playing a tough schedule.

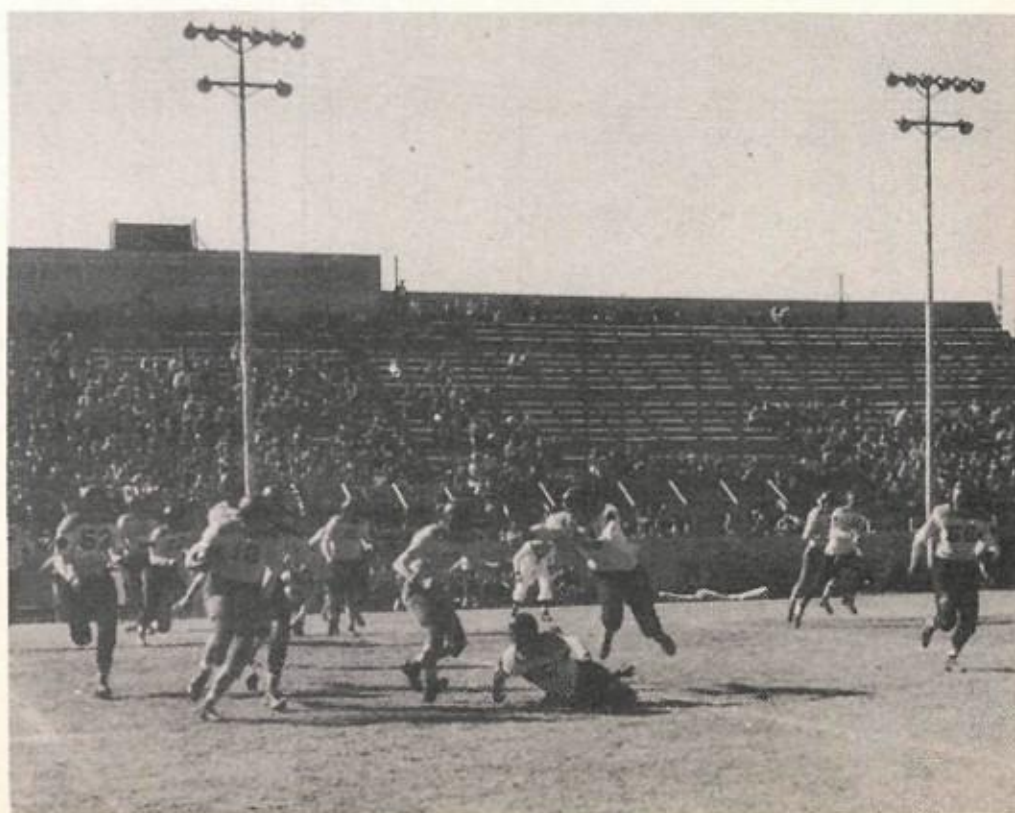

An unidentified Cub is stopped cold at the line by Lokey.

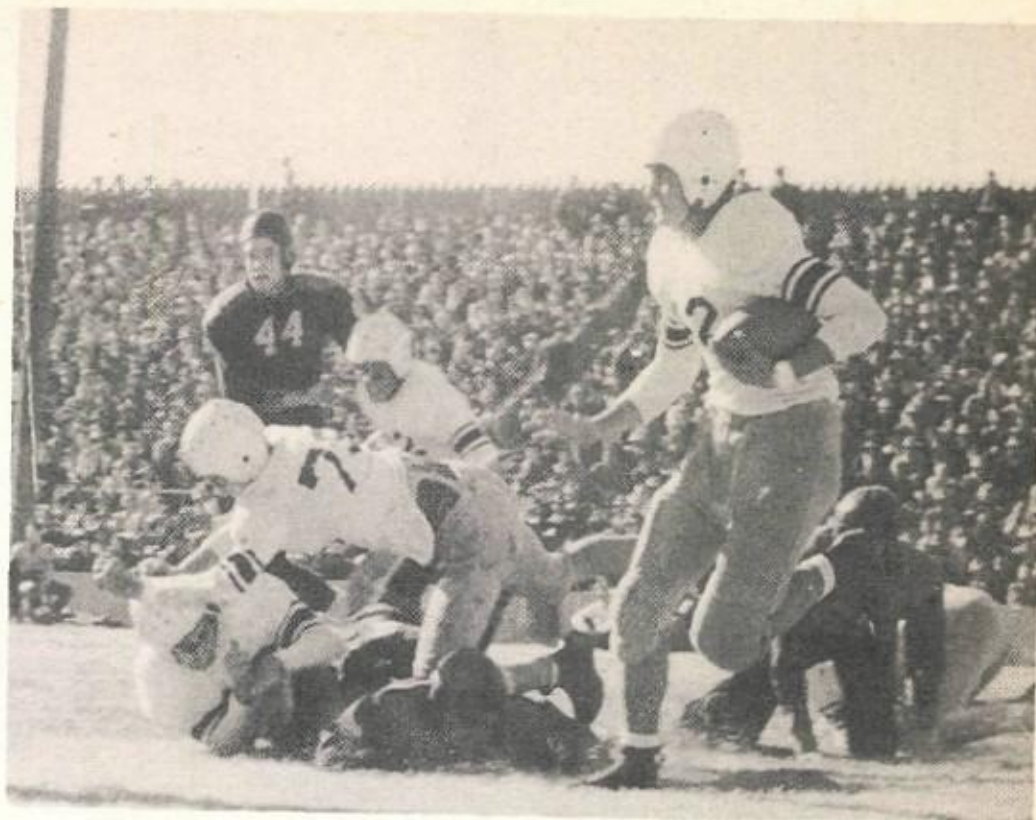

Foster stops an Amarillo back with Nash and Pearson rushing in.

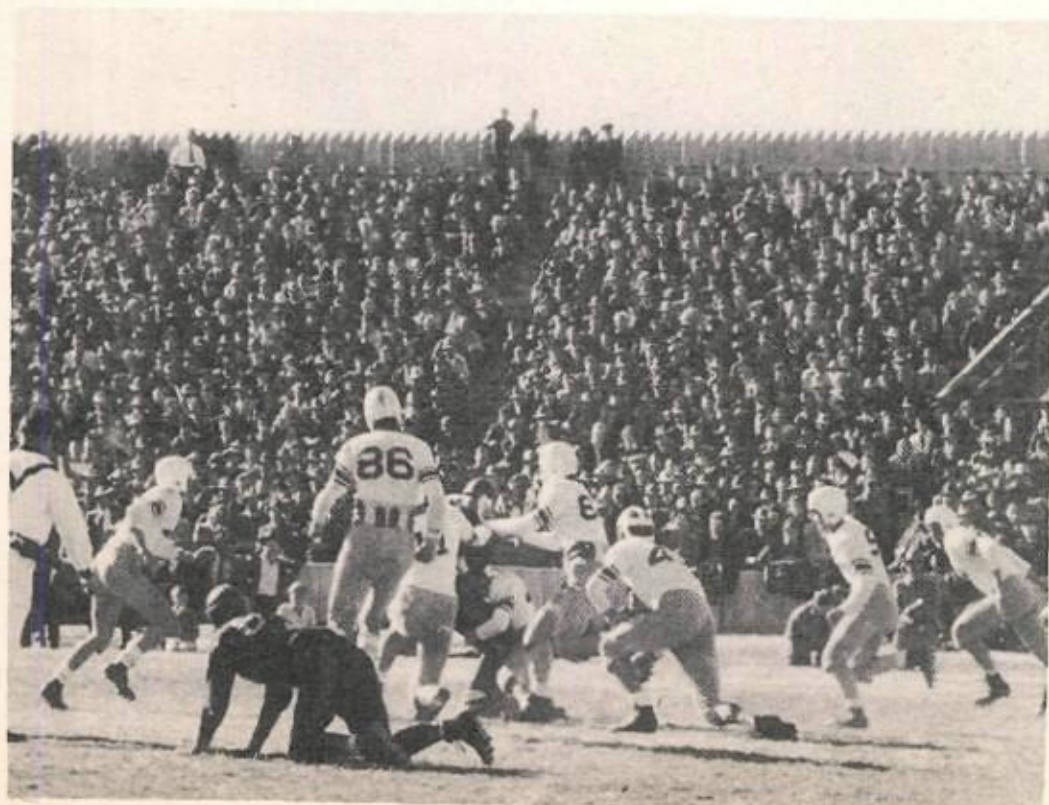

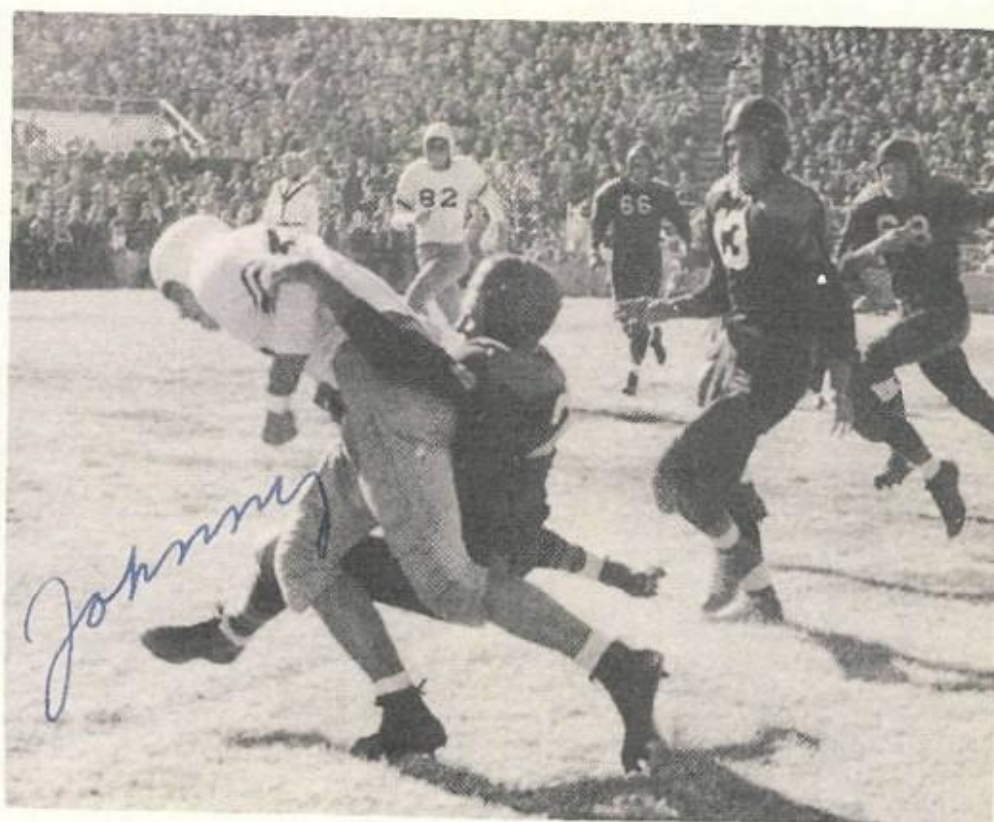

Moore of Brownfield circles his right end for a gain against the Westerners.

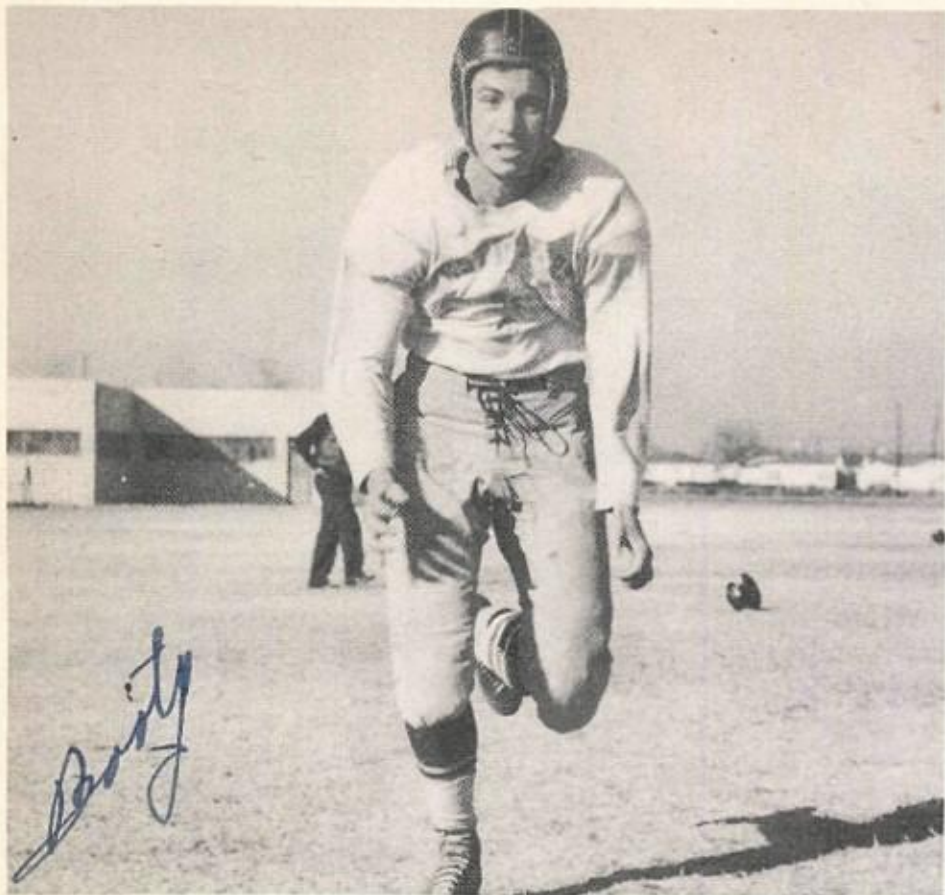

Irvin of Amarillo takes the ball and drives for a good gain.

Westerners

It's nice wishing you
the best of luck.

Ronald Burgess

Lee,
You're really swell.
May you always have the best of everything. It's been swell knowing
you. I wish you
the best of luck.
La Juanita McLeod

L.C.

Lee,
You are a fine fellow. You surprise me but that's a westerner's privilege. The best always Keror

Lee, I haven't known you too long a time but you are a pretty swell
guy. Be nice & change your ways a little anyways
Diane

Here's to a swell
pal. Wishing you all the happiness in the world. Swain Parrack

Lee, I have just now realized what a swell guy you really are. Keep up your good work.
You're a hustling football boy. Lots of luck
Bob Harris

Here to a swell
guy and a good Westerner football player. Clyde Camell

Luck to see a small guy
with a big smile
& nice gene

Lee.

It's been swell knowing you this year. Lots of luck to a swell guy.
